

CLINICAL RESUME

License

Licensed Clinical Psychologist, # psy14005

Experience

Psychologist in private practice. Conduct comprehensive psychological assessments, primarily of children and adolescents. Specialize in Emotional Disturbance including Mood Disorders, Thought Disorders and Posttraumatic Stress Disorders, as well as Pervasive Developmental Disorders, Attention Deficit Disorders and Learning Disabilities. Serve as an expert witness in Fair Hearings and Civil Suits Depositions.

(1996 - present)

Consultant to Multiplicity Therapeutic Services, an agency that provides support and treatment services to Developmentally Delayed and autistic clients.

(2007 - present)

Clinical Director of residential treatment, out-patient treatment, school, and foster care programs for emotionally disturbed children and adolescents. Responsible for clinical services for entire agency. Direct training program. Supervise social workers, program managers, clinicians and interns. Provide assessments, evaluations, and therapy to clients. TLC Child and Family Services, Sebastopol, CA.

(1991 - present)

Lecturer - Institute of Imaginal Studies. Taught graduate school psychology courses in assessment techniques including cognitive, achievement, AD/HD, Pervasive Developmental Disorders, Neuropsychological screening, personality and projective assessments. Petaluma, CA.

(1997 - 2007)

Psychological Consultant to a treatment center for emotionally disturbed children ages 10-18. Conducted psychological assessments provide advice. Full circle Treatment Center, Bolinas, CA.

(1996 - 8/2000)

Program Director, of a day treatment center for emotionally disturbed, physically impaired, and developmentally delayed young children. Supervised a staff of 35, led clinical team, coordinated training, conducted assessments, provided therapy. We Care Treatment Center, Concord, CA.

(5/89 - 1/91)

Family Therapist and treatment coordinator at a residential treatment center for emotionally disturbed adolescents. Individual and family therapy. Sunny Hills Children's Services, San Anselmo, CA.

(1988 - 1989)

Social Worker and case manager in an acute psychiatric hospital for adolescents and adults. East Bay Hospital, Richmond, CA.

(1987 - 1988)

Doctoral Intern. Comprehensive psychological assessments of children and adults. Therapy with adolescents and their families. Youth Interagency Assessment and Consultation Team (YIACT), Concord, CA.
(1986 - 1987)

Program Director of day treatment center for 15 emotionally disturbed adolescents. Supervised staff, monitored budget, developed program. (84-86) Senior Clinician Provided therapy and case coordination. (81-84). Braun Programs, San Rafael, CA.
(1981 - 1986)

Senior Clinician and case manager in day treatment program for chronic mentally ill adults. Berkeley Community Mental Health, Berkeley, CA.
(1979 - 1981)

Education

Ph.D. Clinical Psychology, Pacific Graduate School of Psychology, Palo Alto, CA. 6/91
M.A., Clinical Psychology, Pacific Graduate School of Psychology, Palo Alto, CA. 6/85
M.Ed. Recreation Therapy, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA. 1/78
B.A. Psychology, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA. 1/74
Certificate in Neuropsychological Assessment from the University of California at Berkeley, 2002

Recent Presentations

3/06 “Projective Testing in Psychological Evaluations” Presented at the Council of, Parents, Attorneys and Advocates for Special Education services, National Conference in Phoenix Arizona.

2/04 “Crisis de-escalation and management” Presented at the California State Psychological Association Conference in Sacramento CA.

Publications

“Four Top Notch Practices For Educating Emotionally Disturbed Students”, IDEA Compliance Alert December 2005, contributor

“TLC - It Intervention and de-escalation training program”, Co-author with Jeff Cotton. 2005