

FEE SCHEDULE

(August 2008)

Assessments, Consultations, Office Activities $125 per hour

- Direct assessment and Interviews
- Observation of the client outside the office
- Scoring and evaluating test materials
- Report writing, giving feedback to clients and families
- Routine meetings such as IEP's, travel time
- Office services such as records requests
- Consultation with other professionals

One half of the fees are due at the beginning of the services, the remainder is due at the time the report is completed.

Court/Forensic Appearances Fair Hearings

- Preparation, consult and travel $125 per hour
- Depositions and Court appearances
  - Half day $1,000
  - Four hours or more including travel time $2,000

Fees for set time depositions or fair hearing appearances
 (where less than half a day can be guaranteed) $250 per hour.

All fees for court appearances and depositions are due before or on the day of the testimony.

Approximate Fees for Assessment Batteries
(includes review of previous testing, report and feedback)***

- Comprehensive; IQ, Achievement, neuropsych screening, personality and projective $4,000 – $5,500
- IQ testing $1,200
- Projective and personality testing $3,000 – 3,500
- Executive functions and neuropsychology screening, ADHD $1,500
- Achievement Test battery $1,500
- IQ & Achievement battery including visual spatial testing $2,500
- ADHD Assessment $800

*Does not include attendance at IEP's, classroom observation, or additional assessment materials. Those are charged at the hourly rate.